

I am opposed to expanded media consolidation and urge you to retain the existing FCC ownership rules. Any decision made without more debate and public input will be seen as heavy handed and undemocratic. The changes being considered will impact our society greatly and I fear that the public interest will be sacrificed in the interest of corporate expansion and profit. Please, do not vote to allow further media consolidation at this time.